Property Description

This apartment is positioned in a rural estate dated from the 15th century, in the province of Corciano, at only 12km from Perugia. From this fine estate you can enjoy the beautiful views over the Umbrian countryside. This is a place to really settle you down. The completely restored estate is divided into five stylish apartments, all with their own garden. Painting- and cooking courses are often organized there. Nowadays the biological agriculture (Agriturismo) produces its own olive oil and it also had a wine cellar where it's possible to taste the wine. The estate also grows its own fruit and seeds. Facilities of the estate included a swimming pool, barbeque and a furnished garden. Guests can use the international library, provided with books in English, German and Swedish. You can rent this apartment for any day you wish to (except the high season).

Local Information

This fine apartment is suitable for four to six persons, has a surface area of ca. 120m² and is located on the second floor. The living room is fitted with a double sofa bed and a rustic fireplace. Attached to the living room is an open plan kitchen. The kitchen is fitted with an electrical cooker, dishwasher, washing machine, toaster, fridge with freezing compartment, microwave and a coffee maker. The bathroom has a shower. The wooden ceiling and the wonderful views really do give this apartment a rustic radiation. There are two bedrooms. One of them has a double bed and the other has two single beds. All apartments are fitted with rustic and antique furniture and have central heating and satellite television. You can get a mobile phone on request.
